

SERVICE STRATEGY

FMP is totally committed to the continuous improvement of its service to our customers.

Improvements are achieved through the extensive training and development of our employees and investments into technical development, managed through selective Key Performance Indicators.

We invite all of our valued customers to support this strategy through the identification of areas for improvement and the provision of regular assessment.